STORY TIME PLAYERS

With Charlyne Lato

I saw a performance by Story Time Players when my now 30 year old daughter was in 2nd grade. That experience and the joy I felt from the performers, stuck with me. And when I planned my retirement, joining Story Time Players was at the top of my list of activities I wanted to be involved in. That was in May of 2019 and it has been one of the most enjoyable things I've had the pleasure of participating in since that time.

Story Time Players is reader's theater, which showcases and promotes the joy of reading in grade school children. The performances are short enough to keep the children's attention and long enough to clearly tell a story in a most fun and imaginative way. Personally it has brought me to a community of men and women who find the same joy in storytelling, performing and delighting in the response we see from the children we perform for. We use simple props like a hat, necktie or apron, and rely on gestures and facial expressions to communicate emotion and capture attention. There is no memorization involved, and no requirement for theater or performance experience.

The pandemic has kept us out of the in-person performance we enjoy so much, but we've continued to meet and practice stories and plan for the time we can again be in front of the children who love seeing us. We are looking to expand our membership. We would be so happy to see more fun-loving adults who want to stay young at heart help us to perform our wonderful stories. The Story Time Players rehearse at 1 p.m. on the 1st Tuesday of the month at the beautiful new Plymouth Community Center at 14800 34th Ave. North. As we are able to begin live performances again, we will expand to rehearsals on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays. If you are interested in learning more, we invite you to attend a rehearsal or contact Charlyne Lato at 763-464-6581 for answers to any questions you might have.
