WOODCARVERS With Jim Hecker

The Plymouth Woodcarvers Club is an “open” carving group, which means carvers bring their own tools and supplies and work on individual projects. Carvers learn from each other, sharing ideas, tips, and encouragement to help each other stay sharp and keep carving. The conversation is endless, and the coffee is fresh and free. All skill levels are welcome, and woodcarvers are always eager to help beginners get started on this most enjoyable hobby

The Plymouth Woodcarvers Club was organized at Parkers Lake Pavilion on March 7, 1996, and we have been making chips together for over 26 years. We moved to the new Plymouth Creek Center when it opened in 2000, and then moved around to temporary spaces for two years during remodeling and the pandemic. Now we are very happy to be settling into a new space in the Plymouth Community Center. With about a dozen carvers each week we have room for at least that many more. Visitors are always welcome, so stop in and check us out in Classroom 1C any Thursday morning from 9:30am - 11:30am.
